Culturally-responsive palliative care for people from culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) backgrounds

Multicultural Aged Care Hall

94 Henley Beach Road, Mile End

Wednesday, 12th May 2021

9am – 4pm (for 9:30am start)

An interactive workshop to increase the capacity (knowledge, skills and confidence) of the healthcare team in caring for people from CALD backgrounds, who are affected by life limiting illness.

Learning Objectives

- Understand key concepts relating to cultural-responsiveness and palliative care
- Be aware of cultural and linguistic diversity (CALD) in the palliative care context
- Engage in self-reflection to develop cultural competence
- Be better able to care for and communicate with people from CALD backgrounds who are affected by life-limiting illness
- Embed culturally-responsive practice in palliative care settings.

Facilitators: Agnieszka Chudecka, MAC; Li Li, Social Worker, CAPCS; Elizabeth Wright, Social Worker, CAPCS; and Sue Gregory, RN, PEPA SA

The Workshop is free, with Lunch, Morning and Afternoon Tea and CPD certificate provided.

Numbers are limited. Please register using this link:
